

Facebook & News Feed

He Tohu Document Room Project, Wellington, New Zealand

KKDC are proud to be associated with the He Tohu Document Room Project in Wellington, New Zealand.

This new exhibition space was built to house and display New Zealand's three most important constitutional documents, The Declaration of Independence of the United Tribes of New Zealand of 1835, The Treaty of Waitangi of 1840, and The Women's Suffrage Petition of 1893

KKDC are proud to have sponsored the supply of quality linear light sources to this nationally significant project.

Adding to a growing list of accolades, both within New Zealand and internationally, the project topped the categories in Craftmanship, Civic, and went on to take the Supreme award in the 2018 Interior Awards held in Auckland on Thursday 17th June.

Supreme award - 2018 Interior Awards

Best Awards Purple Pin - Supreme winners, Spatial Category 2017

Best Awards Gold Pin - Public and Institutional Spaces, Spatial Category 2017

Best Awards Gold Pin - Ngā Aho Award 2017

Best Awards Bronze Pin - Public Good Award 2017

IESANZ Lighting Design Award of Excellence 2017

NZIA Wellington Architecture Award - Public Architecture 2018

